The small castle, also called the Bílý hrad (White Castle) or the Pustý zámek (Deserted Chateau), can be reached along a green tourist route from the local part of Vrbno – Železná. At the Hutě signpost, follow the blue tourist route through Bílý Potok. The ruins of the castle from the middle of the 13th century lie on a rock at an altitude of 730 m above sea level.
